

Release of Housing Assignment and Financial Information

Housing & Residential Life

The Family Education Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA) requires us to ensure that a student's right to privacy is protected. We cannot release information regarding your housing assignment or housing financial information to any person, other than yourself, unless written permission is given by you. In order for the University Housing staff to ensure compliance with the law and assist family members with questions about their student's housing assignment and housing financial information, you must give us written authorization prior to the release of this information.

YES, You may release my housing assignment and housing financial information to the following persons:

| Name | Address | Telephone Number | Relation to Student |
|-------|---------|------------------|---------------------|
| _____ | _____ | _____ | _____ |
| _____ | _____ | _____ | _____ |
| _____ | _____ | _____ | _____ |

NO, I would not like my Housing assignment and Housing financial information released to a third party.

In the future, if you want to change or revoke this information, you must inform the Housing and Residential Life Office in writing of this request.

Student's Full Name (print)

Student ID#

Student's Signature

Date